The Fourth Set of Ace Manager is starting February 20th 2012.
Stand face-to-face with best students from around the world on its business court!

Ace Manager is an international competition created by BNP Paribas for students worldwide putting you in the role of a banker for 4 weeks of an exceptional experience. While playing the game you will prove your knowledge as well as get familiar with BNP Paribas’ three core businesses: Retail Banking, Corporate& Investment Banking and Investment Solutions.

With more than 12,000 participants last year the game was a great success and is again on stage to discover best young financial minds in the world.

In the fourth edition John MacKenzie will face tough decisions. Changes in Universe-City and his attachment to values will put him in hard times. His need for professional advises will take you into the very heart of a banking business and by solving 14 demanding financial cases you will be responsible for his (as well as other clients’) success.

Top 5 teams from the online part will be invited to Paris for the final round in mid-April during which they will act in the front of jury composed of BNP Paribas experts and other specialists.

15,000 Euros in prize money, tickets to tennis matches sponsored by BNP Paribas, and internship opportunities for the best are all at stake!

Registration starts November 15th 2011. Do not miss your chance!

See you on court!

For more information, visit the Ace Manager website:
www.acemanager.bnpparibas.com